Terms and Conditions

Enrolment and Notice

One trial class is offered to all students. After the trial if you wish to sign up to a termly class payment is due upfront.

Adult classes may operate as pay as you go or monthly.

When a termly student enrolls into the school, they are not enrolling for one term only, they are enrolled into the school as ongoing. Registration enrolment forms clearly state this & reminders are emailed out during the term. Each student is enrolled as an individual.

If you wish to enrol for one term only, this must be stated clearly in writing before their trial class & on joining the school.

Make up classes will not be offered if a class is missed, or invoices reduced if an absence is planned during term time.

To give notice to end participation in termly classes, 6 weeks' notice is required. These 6 weeks must fall within term time, holiday periods are not permitted within this. If this is not given in the correct format as above, 1/2 a terms fees will be due for payment.

For adult classes, no notice is required for pay as you go passes. 1 months' notice is required for monthly passes.

Ethereal reserves the right to cancel any class for reasons they deem fit where necessary.

Uniform

Uniform It is extremely important that you come to classes dressed in appropriate attire and in line with the uniform guidelines. If you have any difficulty getting uniform, please contact us and we will be happy to help. Ballet shoes are mandatory for ballet classes.

By accepting the terms and conditions, you also accept to adhere to the policies of the school. A link to these can be found on our website.
