

Privacy Policy

The laws regarding the protection of everyone's data have changed dramatically and for the better. As we deal with both your information, and that of your child(ren) we aim to be as open and as transparent as possible.

Why we need your data

To book onto our classes we need to know who you are, how to contact you and the age of your child(ren) to make sure the class you have chosen will suit you both. We will hold details of your name, address, contact details, name and age of your child(ren) and details of the classes and events you have attended. Finally, when you are paying, the payment provider needs to know your details to verify the card (this information is not retained by Mindfully making it).

Who we share your data with

Your data is only shared with the third-party company who is taking the booking and the company processing payments on our behalf.

Why we would prefer you opt-in to our communications

Mainly it means you get notified first when new classes are available, my sessions are normally fully booked with waiting lists, so it benefits you to be on the mailing list. Additionally, you will receive lovely newsletters from me with podcast, mindfulness, book and various recommendations.

Your rights

You can withdraw your consent at any time.

Cookies

www.mindfullymakingit.com uses 1 type of 'Cookie' to function:
