

GDPR

The new laws in relation to GDPR (General Data Protection Regulation) mean all businesses that hold personal data are required to hold consents from the people that they hold data on.

Little&Loud require consent to hold the following details:

- Your child's name
- Your name
- Your email address
- A contact telephone number
- Your home address
- Alternative contact name and number (Emergency)
- Any relevant medical information

The above information will never be shared with a third party and is only held for enrolment and child safety purposes.
