Third Party Providers Excluding Our Maternity Experts

In general, the third party providers we use will only collect, use and disclose your information to the extent necessary to allow them to perform the services they provide to us.

However, certain third-party service providers, such as ticket selling platforms, have their own privacy policies. For these providers, we recommend that you read their privacy policies so you can understand the manner in which your personal information will be handled by these providers.

Once you leave our website or are redirected to a third party website or application, you are no longer governed by this Privacy Policy.

Third Party Providers Including our Maternity Experts

Our Maternity Experts work alongside MummyMoon and carry their own insurance to practice as Maternity Experts (in their own field), in the MummyMoon Programme.

Some of our Maternity Experts may require further information about you so you can safely take part in our MummyMoon Programme. In these cases, we will share this information about you with them but exclusively for these purposes.

Any personal information about yourself, your baby or your family that you share with our staff or Maternity Experts within the course of the MummyMoon programme or alongside it, will be kept confidential and within the confines of the staff and Maternity Experts Team. The only exception to this would be if you, your baby or family are at any risk. The Maternity Experts would then have to pass your information on to the most appropriate support agency. At the end of the programme all extra personal information that you may have shared about yourself will be destroyed or passed onto other professionals at your request.

We may send you marketing emails, which you can unsubscribe from by clicking the link at the bottom of the email. We share your contact information with MailChimp, our email marketing provider, so they can send these emails on our behalf.
