

Privacy Policy – Wiggle Giggles

Last updated: October 2026

1. About our toddler group

Wiggle giggles is a baby and toddler group run by St John the Baptist church welcoming babies, toddlers, parents and carers to enjoy play, friendship and community together.

We respect the privacy of all families who attend our group or contact us through our listing on the Happity website.

This privacy policy explains how we collect, use and protect personal information.

2. Information we collect

We may collect personal information when you contact us, enquire about our sessions or attend our group. This may include your name, email address, telephone number and information you choose to share with us about your child.

Where necessary for the safe running of our sessions, we may also collect emergency contact details and relevant information about allergies, medical needs or additional support requirements.

3. How we use your information

We use personal information only where necessary to:

- Respond to enquiries about our toddler group.
- Provide information about session times, activities and any cancellations.
- Manage attendance and communicate with parents and carers.
- Help ensure the safety and wellbeing of children attending our sessions.
- Meet our safeguarding, legal and other relevant responsibilities.

We will not sell your personal information or use it for unrelated marketing purposes.

4. Our Happity listing

Our toddler group is advertised on the Happity website so that local families can discover our sessions.

If you contact us directly using the contact details provided on our listing, any personal information you share with us will be handled in accordance with this privacy policy.

Happity operates its own website and services and may collect and process personal information in accordance with its own privacy policy. Please refer to Happity's privacy policy for details of how it handles information submitted through its website.

5. Sharing your information

We do not sell or rent personal information. We will only share information with authorised church staff or volunteers who need it to carry out their roles, or with appropriate organisations where necessary for safeguarding, emergencies or legal obligations.

We will only share information that is relevant and necessary for the circumstances.

6. Children's privacy and photographs

The safety and privacy of children are important to us. We take reasonable steps to ensure that children's personal information is handled appropriately and accessed only by those who need it.

We will seek appropriate permission before using identifiable photographs or videos of children for publicity, social media or other promotional purposes.

7. How long we keep information

We retain personal information only for as long as necessary for the purpose for which it was collected, taking into account our legal, safeguarding and record-keeping responsibilities. When information is no longer needed, we will securely delete or dispose of it.

8. Keeping information secure

We take reasonable measures to protect personal information from loss, misuse, unauthorised access or disclosure.

9. Your rights

Under applicable UK data protection law, you may have the right to request access to your personal information, ask for inaccurate information to be corrected, request deletion in certain circumstances, or object to or restrict certain processing.

To ask a question or exercise your rights, please contact us using the details below. You can also find further information at the Information Commissioner's Office website: <https://ico.org.uk/>

10. Contact us

If you have any questions about this privacy policy or how we handle your personal information, please contact:

Email: bookings@sjh.org.uk

We may update this policy from time to time to reflect changes in our practices or legal requirements.