

Privacy Policy

By booking through Happity, you agree to the Happity privacy policy which can be found on their website.

To book our classes, we need to know your names, how to contact you, and the age of your child(ren) in order to ensure the classes are suitable for you. We will hold onto your name, contact details, address, name and age of you child(ren), as well as details of classes and events you have attended.

We will not share your data with any third-party companies. However, booking through Happity means they will have access to your data; please ensure you are happy with the Happity terms and policies.
