

Margaret Lewin trading as Musical Bumps Tonbridge & Sevenoaks

Privacy and Data Protection Policy

We will always try to store your personal details securely. We'll use them to provide the service that you have requested and will communicate with you in the way(s) that you have agreed to. We will not sell your data. We will only allow your information to be used by us and the network of Musical Bumps Licensed Teachers, and we will only share it if required to do so by law.

Summary

Musical Bumps aims to respect your rights to privacy and keep the data you have shared with us secure. We aim to be clear when we collect your data and not do anything you wouldn't reasonably expect. We are registered as a data controller with the Information Commissioner's Office.

Musical Bumps Licenced Teachers deliver classes to families and at early years settings and schools.

By providing your information you consent to our collection and use of the information you provide in the way(s) set out in this policy. We reserve the right to amend this privacy statement in the future. This policy was last updated on 25 February 2024

What is personal data?

Personal data is information that can be used to help identify an individual, such as name, address, phone number or email address.

The policy in brief

We recommend that you read the full policy to understand what information we hold, how we may use it, and what your rights are.

- We collect information which is personal data (as outlined above);
- We collect information about customers and potential customers
- We collect information to provide services or goods, or to provide information and for the prevention/detection of crime;
- We only collect the information that we need or that would be useful to us;
- We do our very best to keep personal information secure whether collected online or otherwise;
- We never sell your data and we will never share it with another party for any purpose;
- We only share data where we are required by law and with relevant Musical Bumps Licensed Teachers.

The full policy is available on request.